UNIFORM

There are a no changes to the Heston Community School Uniform for the new academic year. We believe that students fulfilling their commitment to wear their uniform correctly and with pride leads to the development of positive attitudes towards their learning. The full Uniform Code is available on our website and is also in the Student Planner/Diary. Sixth Form students are required to wear formal business dress as per the Sixth Form Student Hand Book.

Safety, dress, punctuality, attendance and the highest standards are important to all of us. We all want to start each day positively so please help us in September by ensuring your child leaves home appropriately and smartly dressed for learning. To start the day positively we are also requesting that all students are on site by 08:20 every day.
