

GOGRAPHY ONLINE ENRICHMENT

Podcasts

1. Royal Geographical Society Podcasts (KS4). Click here to listen.

Websites

1. Geographypods — Students can find information and exercises on all kinds of Geographical topics. Essentially Geography lessons that students can complete on their own at home. (KS3 & KS4). Click here to view.
2. National Geographic Kids (KS3) — Have access to a range of articles, games, videos, quizzes on science, space, history, politics. Click here to view.
3. Geography in the News (KS3) — Geography in the News is an online magazine addressing geographical issues arising from current news items like climate change, migration, flooding, elections etc. click here to view.
4. Google Earth — Explore worldwide satellite imagery and 3D buildings and terrain for hundreds of cities. Zoom to your house or anywhere else, then dive in for a 360° perspective with Street View. Click here to view.
5. Google Earth is Carmen Sandiego (KS3) — Students travel to different cities via google earth, gathering clues at famous landmarks to track a thief that has stolen the crown jewels. Click here to view.
6. Geoguesser (KS4) - The game shows a random image from Google Street View along with a world map. You guess where the image is located by clicking that spot on the map. Click here to view.

Lectures

1. Ted Talks (KS4-5). Click here to view.
2. Places Journals (KS4-5) - Academic journal on Geographical Issues. Click here to view.

